This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PUBLISHER'S FOREWORD

THE publishers of the OFFICIAL LAWN TENNIS GUIDE have taken great care to have its contents as nearly correct as possible, in the hope that it will be found valuable as a book of reference.

They are always pleased to receive brief accounts of championship tournaments in any section of the United States and its possessions and in Canada, on or before the first of the year following the events.

They call the attention of publishers of other tennis books, magazines and papers, to the fact that the contents of the OFFICIAL LAWN TENNIS GUIDE are copyrighted; and that they do not wish the same to be used, especially the pictures, without their consent having first been obtained.

LAWN TENNIS GUIDE

THE 1920 SEASON

By Richard Norris Williams, 2nd

Due to the great strides that tennis is taking at the present time every succeeding season seems to be greater and filled with more important events than the preceding one. Few people that are not really familiar with tennis from the inside realize the progress that it is making. It is natural, therefore, that when reviewing a season we cannot help to characterize with a prosaic line " It is the greatest season that we have ever had." This expression may have become monotonous and shopworn, and yet it is the very monotony that is building up the game and will build it up further to heights that we little dream of until it will be recognized as one of two or three national and international games. Monotony, then, is the key word to last season's developments, monotony of growth. How could a sport be more healthful than be monotonous in this tremendous growth.

Remember I am talking particularly about the gradual monotony of play, not in the first twenty or so of International Tennis, but that healthy growth which is shown by interest taken in a game by tens of thousands of people all over the country, by the increase in tournaments, by the numbers that are using public courts, and by the new names that are constantly to be found in the events staged by the United States Lawn Tennis Association, and then if you go down the ladder of age you will be struck by a development that is taking place in boys and junior events so essential in reassuring for the future of the game in this country.

Much of the early season interest naturally surrounded the American Davis Cup team that went over to England for the preliminary ties for that famous trophy. This interest, however, is not merely academical, it is reflected by the early start of active tennis throughout the country, so that by the end of June, tennis was booming along at a mid-summer pace. Tournament after tournament rolled around with ever aggregating entries and large galleries, so that by the time the annual championships arrived, we all realized that all records would be broken, and they were. During the championship, the climax of our season, the gallery was not only the largest aggregate that has ever watched this tournament, but the brand of tennis throughout the whole event was probably quite a little higher than it has ever been, and the final of the championship is all that could be expected. Personally I have seen many an exciting match, but few have ever surpassed this one. The outcome hung in the balance to the very end, and it was not until the last point was over that we could be sure who would reign as champion for 1920–21. The Champion is dead, long live the Champion! When we consider the career of our new National Champion, Wm. T. Tilden, Jr., we cannot help but take his hand and congratulate him. For nearly twelve months now he has been playing nearly continually against the best players of the world and only one defeat has been chalked up against his name. He has won the American and English Championships and won every Davis Cup Match that he has started in, a really truly wonderful record.

The American season was over but not the tennis season, — way down on the underside of the globe is the land of Australasia, far away but justly famous in the tennis world. It was there as we had hoped, and our hopes were realized, that our tennis season would come to a successful end. It is now written in history long to be remembered that the American International Tennis Season started successfully in England, and ended in Australasia with the return of the Davis Cup to its native shores. From our point of view this is certainly the end of a glorious season.

THE NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP OF 1920

Longwood Cricket Club, August 16th, 1920

The National Doubles for 1920 was a most representative tournament and one which was attended each day by a large and appreciative audience, although it was regretted that Norman E. Brookes and Gerald Patterson, the holders, did not enter, the tennis was of high standard, and every day there was at least one match well worth seeing. Among the entries were the well-known players, Johnston and Griffin; Tilden and Garland; Pell and Biddle; Hayes and Burdick; Washburn and Mathey; Williams and Harte; Wallace Johnson and Pearson; Beals Wright and Clothier; and Davis and Roberts.

The last mentioned team played very fine tennis throughout. They defeated in their first match Clothier and Wright; in the second round Washburn and Mathey; third Williams and Harte, and in the semi finals which was the best match of the tournament, and one which had the gallery on edge from beginning to end, Tilden and Garland. This took five hard sets and every point made, was earned. This match seemed to take the "edge" off Davis and Roberts, although they played well in the finals, and were playing against a team of seasoned players and both good court generals, they did not have the aggressiveness and fight of the day before, and Johnston and Griffin defeated them quite handily in three straight sets 6-2, 6-2, 6-3. Johnston and Griffin played well throughout and showed the wonderful team work of which they are capable. There were many good matches but that between Davis-Roberts and Washburn-Mathey in the second round is well worthy of mention. The New York pair put up a game fight but were just nosed out in the fifth set.

The players were entertained during the week by the Longwood Club at various dinners and theatre parties and from every point of view the tournament was a great success.

THE 1920 CHAMPIONSHIP

By Beals C. Wright

The 39th championship of the United States was held under the auspices of the United States Lawn Tennis Association at the West Side Club, Forest Hills, under most favorable conditions and the various committees are to be congratulated on their splendid work, as every detail was looked after and the tournament with its 128 entries, to say nothing of the minor events which were run off the same week, was completed in a most satisfactory manner.

It is true that we were not favored with any foreign entries but the fine entry from the Pacific Coast certainly made up in standard of play. The memorable meeting in the finals between William Tilden, Philadelphia, and William Johnston, San Francisco, will go down in tennis history as a thriller of superlative order. The march went the full five sets before a record breaking gallery of 12,000 people that were held spellbound for more than three hours. Finally, Tilden (also winner of the English Championship) won 6/1, 6/1, 7/5, 5/7, 6/3. To gain the finals Johnston had beaten such ranked men as Caner, Washburn, Norris Williams and Niles, while Tilden in turn defeated Wallace Johnson, Wesbrook, Richards and Hardy.

The higher standard of play in the boys' and juniors' events was most noticeable and the various associations throughout the United States are to be congratulated on taking such an interest in our younger players by sending them to the national event, for it is from these youngsters that we are to select our future Davis Cup material and national champions.

A FEW WORDS ON TENNIS

By Wm. M. Johnston

Nineteen twenty-one should be the biggest year this country has ever seen. Not only will the Davis Cup matches keep tennis in the foreground but the public in general are becoming more interested and in fact enthusiastic over the game.

When one travels around the country it is easily seen that the young boys and girls, the future of the game, are very keen. You see them "fighting" for a turn at a court at the public playgrounds, and you see them at the different clubs either playing earnestly among themselves or taking lessons from the club instructor.

There is no better game for the development of our future men and women. It not only builds them up physically but mentally, it teaches them to be honest and good sports, as they are put on their honor to decide many close decisions and it teaches them to take defeat, an important asset always, in sportsmanlike manner.

To learn the strokes is but a small part of the game. The brain must be constantly awake. To note the position in the court, the weakness and strength of ones opponent, his good physical condition is absolutely necessary, thus nerve and temperament also must be taken into consideration, and this all comes from constant practice and through competition.

There is a lot to the game, practically every opponent has a different style of play and practically every shot made is from a different angle, different speed, or position, therefore, the game never lacks interest.

Tennis is growing in leaps and bounds and will undoubtedly gain in popularity each year and well it should as it is hard to find a better game for the development mentally and physically of our future generations.

NATIONAL CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1920 National Clay Court Championship was one of the most successful in the history of this popular event. The South Side Tennis Club of Chicago, was again awarded the tournament and during the period from July 10th to 18th many of the top-notch players of the country battled for the hard court honors.

The entry list totalled 173 and was of a truly national character: St. Louis, Kansas City, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Iowa, Minnesota, Texas, New York and California as well as Chicago were well represented.

Roland Roberts of San Francisco scored a notable victory over the strong field and finally shone forth as the bright star of the tournament. He, however, did not reach his goal without encountering strong opposition in the early rounds, losing a set in each match with Preston Boyden, Harry Waidner and Ralph Burdick. The final with Vincent Richards was a spectacular affair the pair engaging in many rallies that sent the gallery into paroxysms of excitement. Roberts was in fine form and he whipped over his deadly forehand drive from nearly every position, either passing Richards or with two much speed to handle. Both attempted the net position many times, and at this Richards was somewhat more successful; most of his points were earned by clever shots and volleys from the forecourt, at angles so sharp that Roberts was unable to reach them. However, Roberts superiority in service and drive was sufficient to bring a straight set victory.

ENTRIES WOMEN'S NATL. CLAY COURT

TOP ROW: Miss Corrine Gould, St. Louis; Miss Lois Morris, Detroit; Miss Marion Leighton, Chicago; Mrs. Frank H. Godfrey, Boston; Miss Marion Zinderstein, Boston; Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Detroit; Miss Florence Ballin, New York; Miss Eleanor Tennant, Berkeley, Cal.

MIDDLE ROW: Mrs. C. W. Vance, Detroit; Miss Katherine Waldo, Chicago; Mrs. Malcolm MacNeill, Jr., Chicago; Miss P. M. Joackin, Detroit; Miss Hannah Tagweiler, Detroit; Miss "Bobbie" Esch, Cleveland.

The two upsets in the tournament were the elimination of Walter Hayes by Richards and of R. Lindley Murray by Alex Squair who had been out of the game since winning the "Western" title in 1914.

In the Doubles the semi-final match between Roberts and Richards and Clifton B. Herd and Jerry Weber was a thriller; the former pair having to battle five sets before they were able to overcome the latter. In the final, Hayes and Burdick who had been looked upon as the probable winners, were badly off their game, and the best they could do was to force the third set to twelve games. Roberts and Richards, with their entirely different style of game proved a formidable combination.

DAVIS CUP MATCHES OF 1920

The year of 1920 for American Lawn Tennis was brought to a triumphant climax when the United States Davis Cup Team won the necessary third point in the Challenge Round of this great event from the Australasians in Auckland, New Zealand, on the last day of the year 1920. It was indeed a great victory. Few know how difficult it is to win from such seasoned players as our team opposed both in England and Australasia, on courts where the surroundings and the conditions are so different from what they have been used to. Too much praise cannot be given to these men for accomplishing this feat.

The United States Team which went to England and which made it possible to challenge the Australasians was composed of Wm. T. Tilden, 2nd, Wm. M. Johnston, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, and Charles S. Garland, captained by Sumner Hardy. The team which invaded Australasia and which was Captained by Samuel Hardy, was composed of Wm. T. Tilden, 2nd, Wm. M. Johnson, and Watson M. Washburn. Tilden and Johnston did all the playing, however, in the preliminary ties against France and England, as well as in the Challenge Round against Australasia.

The winning of the cup was accomplished without the loss of a match, a wonderful feat, when the calibre of the opposing teams, not only the Challenge Round, but also the Opponent in the preliminary ties is considered. A summary of the matches appears below.

Again let us congratulate all the members of the 1920 Davis Cup Team, who by their undivided, conscientious, unselfish devotion to the object for which they worked from early last spring with untiring persistency, and had the honor of carrrying back with them from New Zealand, the historic Davis Cup.

PLAY AMONG JUNIORS, BOYS AND GIRLS

By PAUL GIBBONS, Chairman Junior Ranking Committee

During the 1920 season play among the Boys and Juniors as well as Girls reached its highest point of development in the history of the sport.

From a comparison of the records of the season of 1920 with those of previous years it is evident that there has been much progress in the development of tennis among the younger players and particularly those in the "Junior" class. While the increase in sanctioned Tournaments was not material, there was a marked improvement as to the number and ability of contenders in the National Junior and Boys' events.

The following comparisons from the records are significant and most complimentary to the 1920 season:

The sanctioned Preliminary Tournaments for Boys in 1920 were 36 against 30 in 1919, while for Juniors they were 49 against 47.

The sanctioned Tennis Center Tournaments for Boys in 1920 were 24 against 23 in 1919, while for Juniors they were 33 against 25.

The National Championship entries for Boys in 1920 were 14 against 10 in 1919, while for Juniors they were 30 against 18.

There were 43 cities or towns in which either Preliminary or Tennis Center Tournaments were held in 1920, representing 20 states and the District of Columbia. There were also Interscholastic Tournaments at nine Educational Institutions.

The finalists in the National Junior and Boys' Singles and Doubles represented six cities or towns in the states of New York, Rhode Island, New Jersey and California.

The foregoing will serve to show how widespread is the interest in the game. The standard of play is improving from year to year and this betterment is becoming more general instead of being confined to a few as formerly. Those who witnessed the contest in the Junior and Boys' events at the National Tournament could not feel otherwise than gratified to note the form and skill displayed by these young players. In the semi-final and final events, the exhibitions were fully equal to many of the matches in the National Singles for men.

The changes in the rules and other helpful influences of the committee for the Development of Junior, Boys' and Girls' tennis, which greatly stimulated play among the Juniors and resulted in more sections being represented in the National Championship, gave the Junior Ranking Committee an opportunity of getting a fair line on the relative ability of the Juniors in those sections sending their boys to Forest Hills and the initial effort of Mr. Tilden and the writer, who constituted the Junior Ranking Committee, was well received.

Mr. Tilden on his trip through the west personally gauged the ability of those Juniors coming under his observation as compared with those in the east with whose standard of play he was familiar.

From the records of Juniors' and Boys' tennis center events, the National Boys' and Juniors' Championship and personal observation, where no other basis of comparison was available, the first Junior Ranking Committee presented a most comprehensive list. Eleven states and twenty-three cities were represented in the 64 Juniors and 23 Boys ranked.

Vincent Richards headed the list and the Yonkers youth demonstrated beyond any doubt that he is in a class alone as the premier Junior player of the world. Arnold Jones and W. W. Ingraham of Providence, the latter being runner-up to Richards in the Junior National Championship, were second and fourth respectively. While Sekiso Yoshikawa, a young San Franciscan Jap, by winning the Pacific Coast Junior title and enjoying the benefit of the fine showing in the east of Hinckley and Godshall, both of whom he defeated on the coast, was given the third place in the ranking.

Philadelphia was once more one of the most active Juniors' tennis centers in the country, no fewer than eight Junior Tournaments being played under the auspices of the Philadelphia and District Lawn Tennis Association.

Four Philadelphia juniors and two boys entered the Nationals, while the Philadelphia and District Lawn Tennis Association issued a ranking list of 85 Juniors and 25 Boys. This being larger than any similar list issued by any other city.

For the first time the ranking of girls was issued and while it was confined to ten names it marks a beginning and should be an incentive toward more activity among the young misses.

Chairman Charles Garland of the Committee for the Development of Boys' Junior and Girls' tennis collected some valuable data through correspondence with those interested in the Junior movement in many sections of the United States and numerous practice suggestions were made making for increased incentive and interest among the youngsters. Some of the suggestions briefly mentioned here are:

" Arrange for special memberships in the larger country clubs to be given as prizes to Juniors, one or more each year.

" The necessity of securing leaders, under the jurisdiction of the local Tennis Association, in each community to give of their time to the instruction of the younger players.

" Recommend concerted action by Junior Committee with the committees on 'Development of Municipal Tennis,' the ' Intercollegiate and Interscholastic ' committee with reference to the preparation of a workable program covering tennis activities in the Public Parks, in Educational Institutions from the Grade School to the University, as well as in outside organizations such as Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Camps of various kinds.

" Supporting the efforts of the committee on ' Intercollegiate and Interscholastic Tennis' in securing the placing of tennis among the ' major ' sports in Educational Institutions.

" Greater publicity should be given to the younger players generally, to reward those playing and induce other youths to take up the game.

" Tennis should be developed at the summer camps.

" Best way to develop tennis players is by means of school leagues. They furnish the competitive element essential to the development of the game through healthy rivalry between school boys and schools.

" Keep large box at the country and tennis clubs for the deposit of discarded tennis balls. These to be given to the public park players who can't afford to buy new ones and, as a result, may be kept from playing tennis. Discarded tennis rackets could also be put to some such affective use.

" Get behind city authorities to increase Public Park tennis equipment wherever it is inadequate. Insist on backstops and nets being supplied."

The above suggestions came from the far west, middle west, south and east and indicate an increasing interest on the part of many in the Junior development movement. Everyone interested in tennis should get behind the Juniors and help in every way possible for here is the future of the sport — we can make it what we will. (Concluded on page 135).

TENNIS IN THE MIDDLE WEST

Tennis in the middle west was particularly active during the 1920 season. In all the State, City, and local tournaments the entries were large and the class of play exceeded that of previous years. Much interest was manifested in the Men's National Clay Court held in Chicago, the Women's National Clay Court held in Detroit, and the National City Doubles held in Cleveland. These tournaments served to stimulate the game in the respective cities. The National City Doubles was an innovation and proved successful the first season, as well as the Inter-City team matches among Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Chicago.

Although the new plan of organization for the " Sections " is but a year old, the " Western " increased its membership of clubs to seventy-three, and the " Missouri Valley " in like proportion. The Hamilton Club in southern Ohio, clubs in Muskegon, Mich., St. Paul and Milwaukee are all preparing for a " greater season."

The various tennis associations were very active and contributed a large part to the success of the year.

The Chicago Tennis Association closed its seventh and most successful season. It now comprises thirty-two clubs, and besides its successful handling of the various tournaments coming under its supervision, it has done commendable work through the Junior Development Committee, in the tennis progress of the juniors, and in the High School championships.

The Chicago Chapter of National Tennis Umpires has been striving for the highest efficiency and we believe stands second to none in the country.

A bright spot in the latter part of the season was the exhibition given by a portion of the Davis Cup team in several mid-west tennis centers. Another important feature was the marked improvement of several juniors; among whom may be mentioned John Hennessey and Fritz Bastian of Indianapolis, Walter Wesbrook of Detroit, Henry Norton of Milwaukee, Irving Kuhler, Jr., of Cincinnati, Wray Brown of St. Louis, Preston Boyden of Winnetka, Ill., and several in Chicago.

Optimism prevails everywhere for the tennis future of the middle west.

HOW TO BUILD TENNIS COURTS

CLAY COURT

To really enjoy a game of tennis it is necessary, first of all, to have a good court and one which is laid out properly. It is most important that there should be plenty of room both at the sides and ends of the court. When possible, there should be 15 feet on each side and 21 feet at each end at least.

The court should be laid out so that it will run north and south and situated so that no shadows from buildings, trees, etc., shall interfere. Another important point is to have a good background at the ends so that the ball can be plainly seen in its flight. Unless the court is for club use or where it can be properly cared for, we strongly advise a dirt or clay court.

The cost and amount of work to build a dirt court depends entirely on the condition of the soil. If the latter is of sandy nature so that it will drain well and where no artificial drains are necessary, we suggest the following: — Take the earth out for about one foot in depth. This having been done and every care taken to make sure that it is level, 5 inches or 6 inches of broken stone, the kind used for macadamizing roads, should be spread in the excavation. Over this spread a fine mixture of stone and gravel. This should be soaked for three or four days and intermittingly rolled while wet and in this way it will gradually "work in." Naturally, depressions or holes will be found and these should be filled in as they appear. Care also should be taken to see that there is a gradual slope from end to end, or from side to side, of about 2 inches in 30 feet. A topping of about 3 inches should be laid on the foundation described above consisting of a mixture of clay and sandy loam. The mixture depends entirely on the quality of the clay. Great care should be taken in this. The mixture should run from four parts of clay to one of sand if the soil is sticky. From eight to one of sand if the soil is sandy. This surface should be watched carefully and sand added if the surface proves to be sticky. When finished the court should not be played on for a week or two but should be watered or rolled at least twice a day until the surface is fairly firm.

If the court is in a location where it does not drain readily, artificial drainage must be resorted to. Pipes, "ordinary sewer pipes" cut in halves, should be laid immediately under the foundation and follow the grade of the court. Outside the court at a distance of 3 feet other pipes should be laid at the ends. All pipes should be filled with small stone so that they will be solid, yet drain well. After every rain the court should be carefully gone over. The pebbles which have worked out should be removed, indentations filled in and the surface rolled.

ROCK DUST COURT

Stone or rock dust courts have become popular in the middle west, especially where it is difficult to secure the proper kind of clay. They cost less to construct and maintain, and dry out much quicker than clay.

This court may be made with no foundation other than the natural soil; however, to be more durable, we advise the same foundation as for the clay court.

The mud from the sawing of Bedford stone is then allowed to dry, pulverized, and spread over the foundation to a depth of 3 inches. This should be wet and rolled well, and finished with a very light dressing of fine stone screenings.

Calcium chloride may then be used as on the clay court.

ASPHALT COURT

The area of the court should be 60 x 120 feet. The ground should be graded so as to have a pitch of at least 9 inches in 120 feet without any crown whatsoever (drainage).

The subgrade should be either rolled with a small steam roller weighing two and one-half ton, or with heavy hand roller. Upon your subgrade place 4 inches of concrete, or if you can obtain good bed rock macadam, 6 inches of that will serve instead. Upon this, spread one inch of asphalt wearing surface which should be made of the following proportions: —

Asphalt having a penetration of 70 to 90 degrees, 120 pounds; powdered limestone or cement, 150 pounds; fine sand possessing not over three per cent. loam, or mica, 745 pounds.

The above quantities constitute 9 cubic feet of finishing material covering an area of 100 sq. feet, and one inch thick. Particular pains should be taken in ironing and hand-rolling of the asphalt, so that there will be no roughness after the final rolling.

There should be two hand rollers used when the asphalt is spread, one weighing about 600 pounds, followed by a lighter one weighing close to 400 pounds.

The rakers should work to a three-quarter inch surfaced board in spreading the material. Should the subgrade be all loam or material that opens up and cracks, it would be good to spread about two inches of sand before the concrete, base or macadam is laid.

GRASS COURT

These can be made in three ways, namely: first, by improving an existing stretch of turf until it is level and smooth enough; second, by leveling the ground, preparing the soil, and sowing grass seeds; and third, by laying fresh turf. Of these, the former is of course the simplest; but as the requisite piece of grass land is rarely available particulars for preparing it are seldom required. In improving such a piece of turf care should be taken to remove all weeds or coarse grasses and to freely use the spirit-level. To raise hollow places the turf should be cut out, lifted and fine soil placed underneath until the proper height has been obtained, when the turf should be replaced and well beaten down with the flat side of a spade. On the other hand, small mounds should be removed by taking the soil away from under the grass, some fine mould being placed underneath the turf before it is replaced. To prepare a court for sowing seeds the same instructions may be followed as for making a turf-laid one, except that the seed will be sown instead of the turfs laid. Take care that the seed is good by purchasing from a first-class seedsman, and when ordering, it will be well to state what sort of soil is to be sown. By far the larger number of courts are made by laying fresh turfs.

When preparing the ground for a court, it is desired to level a portion measuring 100 x 50 feet, which allows an ample margin; but for the playing portion itself only 78 x 36 feet is necessary. If economy must be strictly considered, only the latter need be carefully prepared; but it is better to have the whole done if possible.

HOW TO MARK OUT A COURT

As a double court practically includes every line to be found in a single court, it is best to take first the measure for the latter. Having determined the position of your net, plant in the ground, in the line chosen, two pegs, 27 feet apart (at the points A and B in the diagram). Then take two measures and attach their respective ends to the pegs A and B. On the first which will measure the diagonal of the court, take a length of 47 feet 5 inches; on the other, 39 feet; pull both taut in such directions that at these distances they meet, in a point C. This will give one corner of the court. At that point, F, 21 feet from B, put in a peg to mark the end of the service-line. The other corner, D, and the other end of the service-line, G, may be found by interchanging the measures and repeating the process. The same measurements on the other side of the net will complete the exterior boundaries of the court. By prolonging the base-line 4 feet 6 inches in each direction, and joining the four new points thus obtained, we can make the side-lines of a double court. It only remains to mark the central line. This is done by joining the middle points of the service-lines. If a double court alone be required, the interior side-lines need not be prolonged to meet the base-lines. Remember that in all cases the net-posts must stand at a distance of three feet from the side-lines.

A tennis center association shall consist of clubs within the limits of a community, as fixed by the sectional association in which it is located, or if there is no active sectional association by the National Association.

Clubs of any foreign country may join the National Association or any sectional associations, subject to the consent of the National Executive Committee in each case.

(b) School and college associations shall consist of not less than five schools or colleges. However, an individual school or college may also form a club and become an active member.

Park associations shall consist of associations of public park players, not more than one association from any one city, approved by the Park Commissioner.

(c) A club may secure membership only through the tennis center association, or, if not within the limits of such an association, only through the sectional association within whose limits it is located. If not within the limits of an active association it may secure direct membership in the National Association.

Tennis center or park associations located within the limits of a sectional association shall not be admitted to direct membership in the National Association but shall secure membership through their sectional association.

Sub-section (c) shall apply only to the Western and the California Sections for the present. It may be extended to other sections by constitutional amendment in the usual form. Pending such extension, no club or tennis center association, being itself a member of the National Association, shall be counted as a member of any association in determining the voting power of such association.

(d) Honorary individual members shall be elected by the Executive Committee on recommendation of the Honorary Membership Committee.

SEC. 3. Proposals for direct membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the proper officer of the club or association making the proposal and shall give such information with regard to membership, grounds, etc., as shall be required by the Executive Committee. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent.

SEC. 4. The Executive Committee shall have full power to elect candidates for membership, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of any other association until its election be confirmed by a two-thirds vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or the associations upon whose limits it encroaches consent to such encroachment. The election to membership of such an association automatically decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits. The Executive Committee shall issue a charter to each active association which is a direct member of the National Association, defining its limits and duties. Sectional associations shall issue a similar charter to each of their member associations.

SEC. 5. The secretary of each sectional association, and of each club and tennis center association holding direct membership in the National Association shall submit to the secretary of the National Association, prior to December 31st, a complete report of membership as of the preceding October 1st. The club report shall contain the names and addresses of its officers and the exact number of members in good standing. The association report shall contain the names and addresses of its officers and a list of its member clubs with the exact membership of each. The Secretary of each sectional association, and of each sub-association belonging directly to the National Association, shall notify the National Secretary immediately of all changes in membership. The statements furnished under the provisions of this section shall be the basis upon which dues and voting power are established, as provided in Article III, Section 1, for the ensuing fiscal year beginning February 1st. Failure to furnish these statements by April 1 will be cause for the Association to render a bill for dues based on the club's latest report, or upon the minimum classification of membership.

ARTICLE III

VOTING POWER AND DUES

SEC. 1. (A) The voting power and dues of clubs shall be determined by the following schedule:

Membership	Annual Dues	Votes
100 or less	$10.00	100
101 to 125	12.50	125
126 to 150	15.00	150
151 to 175	17.50	175

and so on, increasing the voting power pro rata and the dues by two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for each additional twenty-five members.

(B) Country clubs, athletic clubs, and other clubs fostering tennis only in connection with other sports, and school and college tennis clubs, shall have 100 votes and pay annual dues of ten dollars ($10), irrespective of membership. If any such club except a school or college club, has more than 100 members, chiefly interested in tennis, the Secretary and the Chairman of the Tennis Committee shall certify to their exact number in the report provided for in Article II, Section 5, just above, and the club's dues and voting power shall be established on the basis of such members only.

SEC. 2. A tennis center association shall pay to its sectional association fifty per cent. (50%) of all dues collected from its member clubs and shall be entitled to cast its full voting strength in all meetings of its sectional association, by either solid or split delegations. If it belongs directly to the National Association, it shall pay and vote in the National Association on the same basis.

SEC. 3. A sectional association shall pay to the National Association fifty per cent. (50%) of all dues collected from its members and shall be entitled to cast the full voting strength of all member clubs and tennis center associations, by either solid or split delegations.

SEC. 4. School, college and park associations shall have no voting power and shall be exempt from paying dues.

SEC. 5. No club or active association shall be allowed to enjoy any of the privileges of membership until its first annual dues have been paid, or to vote at the Annual Meeting of the National Association unless it was a member of the Association for the preceding fiscal year. The fiscal year of the National Association shall begin February 1st. Dues of clubs holding direct membership shall be paid before May 1st, and of associations before July 1st.

ARTICLE IV

RESIGNATIONS, EXPULSIONS, ETC.

SECTION 1. Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues for the current fiscal year are paid. Resignations must be received before February 1st to relieve the member from payment of dues for the ensuing year.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may be more than one month in arrears in paying its annual dues; or which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with the Constitution, By-Laws, or Regulations of the National Association, or which may by its conduct bring reproach or disgrace upon the National Association; or which being an association may retain as one of its members any club or association objected to in writing by the Executive Committee, or may fail to fulfil the duties prescribed by its charter; subject to the right of any member suspended or expelled to appeal to the National Association for reinstatement at its next Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The affairs of the National Association shall be conducted by an Executive Committee, composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such ex-Presidents of the Association as may be elected from year to year at the annual meeting, and eighteen other members, twelve of whom shall represent stated sections of the country as provided in Article II, Section 2, and shall be called Sectional Delegates. All decisions of the Executive Committee shall be complied with forthwith; but an appeal therefrom may be taken by any member to the National Association at its next annual meeting. The Executive Committee and the Secretary shall cause official notices, and such other matters of information as they shall deem of interest, to be published in a paper which may be appointed annually by the Executive Committee as the official bulletin of the National Association. It shall have general charge of the funds of the National Association, and shall control all expenditures. It may charge off all bills owing to the National Association which it shall deem uncollectible.

Each member of the Executive Committee must be a member of a club belonging either directly to the National Association, or indirectly as specified in Article II, Section 2. Seven members, including officers, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

The Nominating Committee shall make nominations for the officers and members of the Executive Committee and members of the Nominating Committee, to be voted on at the ensuing annual meeting under the provisions of the Constitution.

A notice containing such nominations shall be sent to every member of the Association by the Secretary, together with the notice of the annual meeting.

Only one member of the Nominating Committee may serve continuously for two years.

SEC. 11. Sectional Delegates — In addition to their other duties as members of the Executive Committee it shall be the duty of Sectional Delegates carefully to observe conditions relating to the game in the sections which they respectively represent and to report thereon to the officers of the National Association and the Executive Committee.

SUSPENSION OF BY-LAWS

Any article or section of these By-laws may be suspended for any one meeting by a two-thirds vote of all cast.

LAWN TENNIS BALLS

Lawn Tennis balls, although it is not realized by most tennis players, are most delicate and should be taken care of as carefully as the gut in one's racket. For instance, in a Championship ball the requirements are very precise, and it has to be manufactured most carefully to meet all requirements. The felt covering on a ball is very important. The wall or thickness of the rubber must be just so. If too thick, one will be unable to play the various shots correctly, especially the volley, and, if too thin, the ball can not be controlled properly, being too lively.

Heat and cold have more effect on a ball than almost anything. In cold weather the balls become heavy and soggy and need more hitting, while on a hot day they expand and one's stroke must be more sensitive, consequently on hot days the play is much faster.

Players as well as dealers should keep the balls in a dry place of even temperature, then they will hold their life longer and will not deteriorate and become soft.

It is a great mistake, and one that is often made, for players to leave the balls unboxed in a locker with damp clothing. It is only natural that balls wear out more quickly when used on dirt or cement courts, because the felt cover which cannot be made of a coarse material, wears out easily, thus causing the ball to become light and hard to control. This is most noticeable on windy days when lobbing or playing a long stroke from behind the base line. Balls used on grass hold their weight and are likely to become somewhat heavier. When practicing for big contests the leading players seldom use the balls in more than from three to four sets during an afternoon's practice.

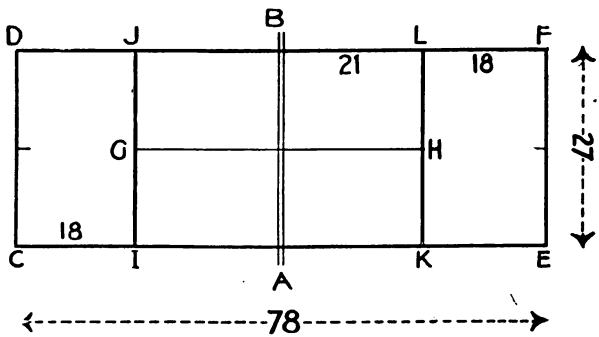
"RULES" AND "CASES AND DECISIONS"

Rule 1. The Court — Singles and Doubles:

The Singles court is a rectangle 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to the tops of two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside the court each side. The height of the net is 3 feet, 6 inches at the posts; it shall be pulled taut between the posts but retained at a height of 3 feet in the middle by a strap called the center strap, which will not be more than 2 inches wide. There shall be a band at the top of the net not less than 2 inches or more than 2½ inches in width. For the purpose of construing the rules of lawn tennis, the net shall be considered an impermeable barrier flush to the posts and the ground.



At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines, CD and EF, the ends of which are connected by the side lines, CE and DF. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it, are drawn the service lines II and KL. The middle points of the service lines are joined by the center service line. GH, dividing the space on each side of the net between the service line and the side lines into 2 service courts. The places where the center service line, if extended, would meet the base lines shall be indicated by 4-inch marks immediately inside the base lines, called center marks. All lines and marks shall be not less than 1¼ inches or more than 2 inches in width, except the base lines, which may be 3 inches in width. As one faces the net from each base line, the right and left halves of the intervening court are the right and left courts, respectively.

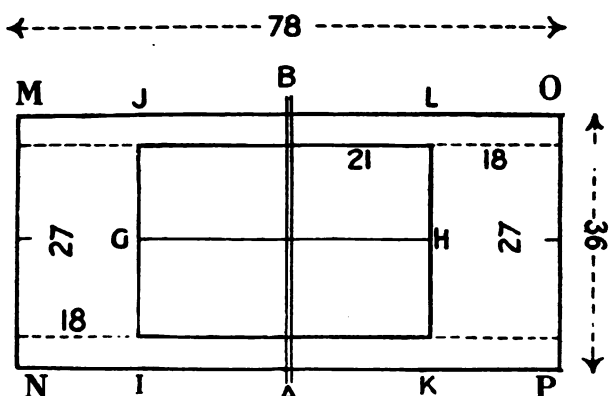
In the Doubles game the court is the same length as in Singles but is 36 feet wide, bounded by the base lines, MN and OP, and the side lines, MO and NP. The service courts are the same as in Singles. If necessary to avoid delay, the Singles side lines may be allowed to remain marked in their entirety, instead of only where they coincide with the service side lines.

The measurements of all lines except the center service line shall be outside measurements, that is, the distance from the outside of one base line to the other shall be 78 feet; from outside of side line to side line 27 feet for the Singles and 36 feet for the Doubles court; from outside of service line to service line 42 feet.

Where Singles is played on a court posted for Doubles only, additional posts or sticks 3 feet, 6 inches high shall be placed 3 feet outside the Singles side lines to support the net.



Rule 2. The Balls. The balls shall measure not less than 2 9-16 inches, nor more than 2 10-16 inches, in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 2 ounces nor more than 2 1-16 ounces.

The balls shall have a minimum bound of ~~36~~ 45 inches and a maximum bound of 60 inches when dropped 100 inches at 68 degrees Fahrenheit upon a concrete base.

Case I. Should a ball become broken through hitting, shall a let be called?
Decision. Yes. — Rules Committee.

The Singles Game

Rule 3. The choice of sides and the right to be server or receiver in the first game shall be decided by toss; provided that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to be server or receiver, the other player shall have the choice of sides, and vice versa; or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose a side the other may elect to serve, or not, as he wishes.

Rule 4. The players shall be on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the receiver.

Case II. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision. No. Rule 4 requires that "the players shall be on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.—James Dwight.

Case III. The server claims that the receiver must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision. No. The receiver can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.—James Dwight.

Case IV. A cuts the ball just over the net and it returns to A's side. B, unable to reach the ball, throws his racket and hits the ball. Both racket and ball fall over the net on A's court. A returns the ball outside of B's court. Who wins the point?

Decision. When B threw his racket across the net he invaded his opponent's territory and such an invasion was in a measure responsible for A's returning the ball out of court; in other words, B would lose the point.—R. D. Wrenn.

Case V. Is it allowable, in Doubles, for the partner of the server to stand in the center of the service court, and thereby obstruct the view of the receiver?

Decision. Yes. The partner may take any position in the court that he wishes.—R. D. Wrenn.

Rule 5. At the end of the first game the receiver shall become server, and the server receiver; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the match.

Rule 6. Foot Fault Rule. Before commencing to serve the server shall stand with both feet at rest behind, i. e., farther from the net than the base line, and within the limits of the center mark and side line. From the time of taking such stand and until the racket strikes the ball both feet shall remain behind the base line, and at least one foot shall remain continuously on the ground.

Case VI. In Doubles the server claims the right to stand at the corner of the court as marked by the Doubles side line. Is the foregoing correct, or is it necessary that the server stand within the limits of the center mark and the singles side line?

Decision. The server has the right to stand anywhere between the center mark and the Doubles side lines.—R. D. Wrenn.

Case VII. Is it allowable in Singles for the server to stand behind the base line back of the alley?

Decision. No.—R. D. Wrenn.

Rule 7. The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, and the ball served shall strike the ground in the service court diagonally opposite.

Case VIII. The point score being fifteen-all, the server by mistake serves from the left court; he wins the point and serves again, delivering a fault; the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous point? From which court should he serve next?

Decision. The previous point stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being 30-15, and the server has served one fault.—James Dwight.

Case IX. A player serves from the wrong court; he loses the point, and then claims it was a fault.

Decision. If the stroke was played on his first service, it is simply a fault; but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the point.—James Dwight.

Case X. Can a player serve underhand?

Decision. Yes. There is no restriction regarding the kind of service which may be used; that is, the player may use an underhand or an overhand service at his discretion.—R. D. Wrenn.

Case XI. A service is delivered into the wrong court and the error is not noticed by the umpire or the players. The point is won by the server, ending the match. All leave the court; shortly afterward the mistake is brought to the attention of the umpire. May the umpire reopen the game?

Decision. No. A protest must be made immediately.—R. D. Wrenn.

Rule 8. It is a fault if the server commit any breach of Rules 6 or 7, or if, in attempting to serve, he miss the ball altogether, or if he touch the ball with any part of his body, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket.

Case XII. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the point or is it a fault?

Decision. It is a fault.—James Dwight.

Rule 9. After a fault (if it be the first fault) the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

Rule 10. The server shall not serve till the receiver is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

Case XIII. The service is delivered before the receiver is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision. No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.—James Dwight.

Case XIV. In receiving the service, a second ball was served while the first one (a let) was still in the air, and the two came in contact. No attempt was made to return the second service. The point was scored for the server. Was this correct?

Decision. No. A let should be called.—Rules Committee.

Rule 11. A service or fault delivered when the receiver is not ready counts for nothing.

Case XV. The receiver calls " not ready " for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the receiver claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision. The second service is a let. A player cannot call "not ready" and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interest.—James Dwight.

Rule 12. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken before it has touched the ground.

Rule 13. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided in Rule 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

Rule 14. It is a good return if the ball strike in the proper court, even though it touch the net; but a service otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing and shall be termed a let.

Rule 15. The server wins the point if the receiver volley the service, or if he otherwise lose the point, as provided by Rule 18.

Rule 16. The receiver wins the point if the server serve two consecutive faults, or if he otherwise lose the point as provided by Rule 18.

Rule 17. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

Rule 18. Either player loses the point if he fail on the volley or the first bound to return the ball in play into his opponent's court; or if he touch it with any part of his body, or anything that he wears or carries except his racket, or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he, or his racket, or anything that he wears or carries, touch the net or any of its supports, or the ground within his opponent's court, while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

Case XVI. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision. He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court or a permanent fixture other than the net or posts.—James Dwight.

Case XVII. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of service court. How does it count?

Decision. The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court or out of court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball.—James Dwight.

Case XVIII. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision. Yes, provided he does not touch the net while the ball is in play. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time.—James Dwight.

Case XIX. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision. If the player touched the net while the ball was still in play he loses the point.—James Dwight.

Case XX. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision. Yes. The only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports while the ball is in play.—James Dwight.

Case XXI. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision. Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in the player's hand or not.—James Dwight.

Case XXII. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision. Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off it.—James Dwight.

Case XXIII. A Singles match is played with a Doubles net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts and claims that he does not lose the point because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision. He loses the point. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net.—James Dwight.

Case XXIV. A ball passes outside a net post and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.—James Dwight.

Case XXV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision. Yes, if it is clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.—James Dwight.

Case XXVI. Is it a good return if the receiver return a service holding the racket in both hands?

Decision. Yes.—Rules Committee.

Case XXVII. In Doubles a ball is struck at by a player at the net, and also by his partner, both players missing the ball, which drops outside the court. Neither player called "out." Who wins the point?

Decision. The point goes to the player who struck at the ball and missed it. An unsuccessful attempt to hit the ball, or calling "out," has no bearing on the case.—R. D. Wrenn.

Rule 19. In case a player is hindered in making a stroke by anything not within his control, except a permanent fixture of the court, the stroke shall be replayed. The benches and chairs placed around the court, the back- and side-stops, and the umpire and linesmen, shall be considered permanent fixtures. If a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court other than the net or posts before it touch the ground, the player who struck it loses the point, except that a first service so striking is merely a fault; if after it touch the ground he wins the point.

Case XXVIII. A ball going out of court hits a net post and bounds into the opposite court. Is it a good return?

Decision. Yes.—James Dwight.

Case XXIX. A spectator gets in the way of a player who fails to return the ball. May the player then claim a let?

Decision. Yes, if in the umpire's opinion he was obstructed by a circumstance beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them the point should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the point should be played again.—James Dwight.

Case XXX. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the point to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. Has he the right to two services?

Decision. No. The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault. —James Dwight.

Case XXXI. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand. The player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision. He loses the point.—James Dwight.

Case XXXII. A player serves. He hears the Umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the Umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He therefore does not return it, only to find that the Umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision. Yes. A let shall be called and the point replayed.—James Dwight.

Case XXXIII. The Umpire calls "fault" and then instantly changes and says "play." The receiver fails to return the ball, and claims he was prevented by the Umpire.

Decision. The Umpire shall call a let.—James Dwight.

Case XXXIV. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision. Yes.—James Dwight.

Case XXXV. The first ball served, a fault, strikes the backstop, and bounds back, interfering with the receiver at the time of the second service. Can he claim a let?

Decision. Yes.—Rules Committee.

Rule 20. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as follows: If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

Rule 21. The player who first wins six games wins the set; except that if both players have won five games, either player must gain a lead of two games to win the set.

Rule 22. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set, and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even, in which case the change is not made until the end of the first game of the next set. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third, and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

Rule 23. The maximum number of sets in a match shall be 5, or, where women take part, 3.

Rule 24. Play shall be continuous from the first service till match be concluded; provided that after the third set, or where women take part, the second set, if the match be not yet finished, either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed 10 minutes; and provided further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed 2 minutes may be allowed; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or his wind. The umpire shall be the sole judge of intentional delay, and after giving due warning he may disqualify the offender.

Rule 25. The referee, in his discretion, may at any time postpone a match on account of darkness or the condition of the ground or the weather. In any case of postponement the previous score and the previous occupancy of courts shall hold good, unless the referee and the contestants unanimously agree otherwise. But when the players are not changing every alternate game, as provided by Rule 22, and when play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set.

Rule 26. If a player serves out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered, shall direct the player to serve who should have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, the service in the next game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

The Doubles Game

The foregoing rules shall apply to the Doubles game, with the following additions:

Rule 27. The four players shall serve alternately throughout each set. The pair having the right to serve first shall select the server for the first game of each set; their opponents shall select from themselves the server for the second game.

Case XXXVI. A player serves a fault, and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision. Yes.—James Dwight.

Case XXXVII. In Doubles, one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single handed against the opposing pair. May he do so?

Decision. No.—James Dwight.

Rule 28. The player shall receive the service alternately throughout each game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of serving and receiving once established may not be altered till the end of the set.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,

8. The Referee, may whether appealed to by any Competitor or not, postpone the meeting, or any match or part of a match, if in his opinion the state of the weather, or if the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so.

9. The Committee shall keep order on the grounds, and shall decide any question arising out of the Competition, except a point of law, if summoned for that purpose by the Referee or by any two of their number; and they shall have power, when so convened, if the misconduct of a competitor be reported to them by a member of the Committee, or by an Umpire, to disqualify the offender after a hearing. The members of the Committee present on the ground shall constitute a quorum.

10. It is the duty of an Umpire —

(a) To ascertain that the net be the right height before the commencement of play, and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.

(b) To call service faults, lets and those foot faults due to the server having stepped into the court, unless he delegates such powers.

(c) To call the points when won, or when he is asked to call them and to record them upon the score card.

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each, or when asked to call them, and to record them on the score card. At the end of each game, the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "One game to nothing; A leads," or "Two games to one; B leads." If the games are even, the score should be called thus: "Three games all," or, as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Rule 22.

(f) When appealed to during a rally whether or not a doubtful ball be "in play," to say nothing; an appeal should not be made, as the ball is presumed to be good until "out" or "fault" is called.

Case 1 — A ball was driven to the base line of the opponent's court. The latter was in doubt whether it was good or not and called to the Umpire for a decision, there being no Linesman. The Umpire, not being able to give an instant decision, said nothing. Play continued, and finally the player, who asked for the decision, knocked the ball out of court. The Umpire had by that time confirmed his first impression — that the disputed ball was out — and awarded the point to the player who had, in the course of the rally, knocked the ball out. Was the Umpire right?

Decision. Yes. — Rules Committee.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes subject to the decision of the Linesman, and all points of law, subject to an appeal to the Referee; and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match, including its discontinuance, subject to the approval of the Referee.

(h) To see that play is resumed promptly at the expiration of time allotted for rest.

(i) To sign the score card and to deliver it at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive it. Provided that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any point, game or match.

11. It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults, and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned, and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the umpire shall decide, or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

Case 1. — The ball strikes the ground close to a line; the Umpire scores the point against the receiver. On appeal to the Linesman, the latter decides that the ball was not out. Which decision stands?

Decision — The decision of a Linesman affecting his own line is final. The Umpire has no right to consider the ball out until the Linesman has called to that effect. — James Dwight.

12. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no Competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a Competitor appeal from his decision, the Umpire shall submit the question to the Referee, whose decision shall be final, unless reversed by the National Executive Committee. A question of fact relates to events that actually occurred. A question of law is the construction and application of the rules of the game to the admitted facts.

13. A Competitor may appeal to the Referee for the removal of the Umpire or any Linesman of his match.

14. The Referee shall not bet on any match, nor shall an Umpire or Linesman bet on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman.

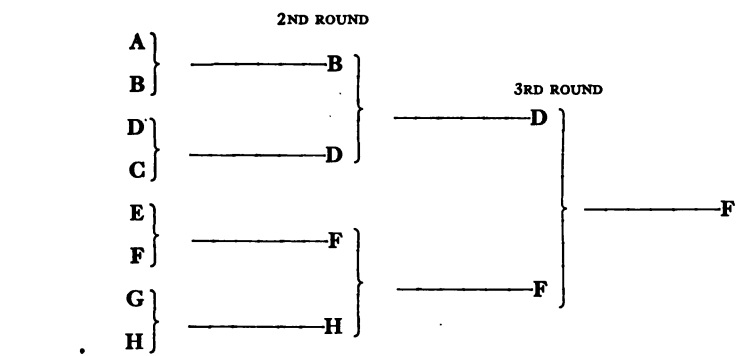
15. No Competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

16. Competitors shall have the right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

17. The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: The names of all Competitors shall be written on separate cards or papers, placed in a suitable receptacle, withdrawn one by one at random and copied on a sheet in the order drawn. The first name or names drawn shall constitute the byes (if any) in the top half of the draw; the next name or names drawn shall constitute the first round; and the last name or names drawn shall constitute the byes (if any) in the lower half of the draw.

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or Organization liable to the loss of all Tournaments for the following year; except that in invitation Tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs, colleges, schools and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, the players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the Competition.

18. When the number of Competitors is 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the following diagram:



19. When the number of Competitors is not a power of 2, there shall be byes in the first round. The purposes of having byes is to bring into the second round a number of Competitors that is a power of 2. To determine the number of byes, substract the number of Competitors from the next higher power of 2; to determine the number of Competitors in the first round, subtract the number of byes from the total number of Competitors. If the byes are even in number one half of them shall be placed at the top of the draw and one-half at the bottom of the draw; if they are uneven in number there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. The byes in the top half shall be the names first drawn, as provided in regulation 17; the next names drawn shall be placed in the first round. The byes in the bottom half are drawn last. Examples of drawings in which there are byes follow:

SERIES 1

With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

With 13, 1 bye at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 14, 1 bye at the top, and 1 at the bottom.
With 15, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 16, no byes.

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the tables on following pages. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example. — If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz., 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows: —

The number at the left of the horizontal columns denotes the player who goes back to scratch, those at the head of the vertical columns the player who still receives odds; and the numbers within the columns show the odds to be received by the player whose number stands at the head of the column.

ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF HANDICAPPING

23. The player who first wins 30 points, including his handicap, wins the set. The service alternates after each series of six points in each set. The player who serves first in the first set receives for the first six points of the second set, begins the service again in the third set, and so on. The players change courts after the sixth, eighteenth, and thirtieth point, and so on in each set, and also at the end of each set.

If the server wins the first point, the score is 1-in; if the receiver wins it, the score is 1-out. If each player wins one point the score is 1-all. If the server wins the next point the score is 2-1; if the receiver wins it, the score is 1-2. The scoring is continued in this manner until the service alternates when the score is reversed, the servers' points always being called first.

The method of handicapping is to allot to each player one or more points in each set, which are subtracted from the 30 points required to win the set. If A, a scratch man, plays B, handicapped 5, A must win 30 points before B wins 25 to win the set. In order to insure the proper sequence in the alternation of courts and service, the points of both players are counted from scratch. Therefore, if B, handicapped 5, serves and wins the first point, the score is 1-in, not 6-in.

If both players are allotted handicaps, the player nearer scratch is placed at scratch and the other's handicap is reduced proportionately.

An example of proportionate reduction is as follows: If A is handicapped 10 and B 20, and if they began playing from these handicaps, A would have to score twice as many points as B to keep the match even. When A is put back to scratch, B who should still receive the same relative handicap, must receive 15, since A now requires 30 points to win.

To find the number of points which the player with the higher handicap must win to win the set in every case, the Committee must multiply 30 by a fraction of which the numerator is the difference between 30 and the larger handicap and the denominator is the difference between 30 and the smaller handicap. All fractions in the result greater than one-half count as one point; otherwise they are disregarded.

24. In all Tournaments sanctioned by the National Association, the use of spikes longer than one-quarter inch is prohibited.

25. Every Organization holding an event sanctioned by the National Association must furnish the Ranking Committee, within ten days after the completion of any such event, with a full and complete report of all matches played therein, together with the full name and, when possible, the address of each contestant.

26. The Ranking Committee must furnish all Clubs and Associations holding any sanctioned event with blanks for the purpose of making the returns required by Rule 25. Immediately after the Committee shall have completed the Ranking, such returns must be delivered to the Field Secretary of the National Association.

27. If any Club or Association fails to make the returns required by Rule 25, sanction for holding any Tournament for the following year may be refused the delinquent, in the discretion of the Executive Committee.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION APPROVES AWARD OF CERTIFICATES

At the annual meeting of the U. S. L. T. A. on February 6, 1920, the following was adopted:

"Resolved, That this meeting recommends to all the member clubs of the U. S. L. T. A. holding tournaments that they offer as prizes certificates of the form described in the report of the committee on standard certificate, with such modifications as may be approved by the National Executive Committee at its May meeting."

The purpose of this resolution is to afford the members of the National Association an opportunity to comply with the general policy of the Association in favoring single trophies rather than expensive prizes for sanctioned tournaments. Use of certificates is optional with the club, but in case a club desires to use the certificate, this standard form is provided.

BALLS OFFICIALLY APPROVED

By resolution of the Executive Committee of the U. S. L. T. A., adopted on December 11, 1920, the Pennsylvania Handmade Championship, stitched and stitchless, Reach Paramount, Slazenger, Spalding Championship, Seamless Rubber Co., Truflite, Alex Taylor, Wilson official and Wright & Ditson Championship balls were approved for use during the season of 1921.

The Wright & Ditson and Spalding Hard Court Balls were approved to be used respectively in the National Singles and Doubles and the Clay Court Championships.

CHARLES GARLAND, Secretary.

NATIONAL TENNIS UMPIRES' ASSOCIATION

In three years the National Tennis Umpires' Association has developed from an idea that some enthusiasts thought would be "a good thing for tennis" into an organization which not only is operating to secure a better development of the sport in the United States but in other nations as well. During 1920 enquiries about its activities were received from several countries to which the story of its plan and accomplishments had spread.

Changes in the rules made it a particularly important adjunct to the U. S. L. T. A. in 1920. With the increasing attention now being given the rules because of the efforts to secure a uniform playing code throughout the world, it becomes still more important as a medium for disseminating accurate knowledge of the laws and ethics of lawn tennis. With the growth of junior tennis and the broadening of its appeal to players in colleges, there is still greater need for the work of such an organization, and consequently, those interested anticipate greatly enlarged activities in 1921.

The plan of organization is to appoint in cities designated as tennis centers, a chairman of the local chapter of the Umpires' Association. He recommends to the committee of the U. S. L.T. A. which is charged with the duty of developing the Umpires' Association, the men who should be appointed umpires in his city. The National Committee issues to them cards authorizing them to serve as officials as in all sanctioned tournaments. A manual has been prepared which contains in addition to the rules, the best available advice for the management of tournaments, and a detailed analysis of the duties of officials and players.

The aim is to develop a National body of umpires who will be so thoroughly familiar with the rules and so imbued with the importance of their proper application to all tournament play that the general level of competition throughout the country may be considerably improved thereby. To this end, the U. S. L. T. A. is co-operating with the National Tennis Umpires' Association, and its members throughout the country are urged to extend their support in every possible way.

The Association's correspondence should be addressed to Room 721, 20 Broad Street, New York City. The United States Lawn Tennis Association has appointed a special committee to assist in the development of the Umpires' Association, its chairman being R. Clifford Black of New York City, and its membership including Edward C. Conlin, R. F. Woods, Davison Obear, J. E. McLain, A. Gibney, George Warder.
